FILED
COMMON PLEAS COURT
FRANKLIN COUNTY, OHIO
2009 APR 28 AM 11:41
CLERK OF COURTS
State of Ohio,
Franklin County, ss:

In the Court of Common Pleas, Franklin County, Ohio, of the Grand Jury term beginning January ninth in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Nine.

Ron O'Brien, the duly elected and qualified Prosecuting Attorney of Franklin County, Ohio, in the name of and by the authority of the State of Ohio, says that prior to this information, Daniel Hausman was duly advised by the Court of the nature of the charge against him and of his rights under the Constitution, and he stated that he understood the nature of said charge against him and his constitutional, statutory, and procedural rights, and that he had fully discussed all aspects of his case with his attorney, S. Adele Shank, and he was completely satisfied with the legal representation and advice and waived in writing and in open Court prosecution of the offense by indictment,

Count 1

By way of information, Daniel Hausman late of said County, from on or about October 4, 2008, within the County of Franklin aforesaid, in violation of section 3599.40 of the Ohio Revised Code, did violate a provision under title 35 of the Ohio Revised Code, to wit: Daniel Hausman did cast an absentee ballot in the 2008 Ohio General Election when he did not meet the residency requirement for an eligible voter in the county of Franklin, State of Ohio,
