DECLARATION OF CONNIE JACOBSEN IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS' OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANTS' MOTIONS
TO DISMISS AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS [2:16-cv-00298 JLR] - 1

1 1. My reasons for filing the lawsuit are set forth in great factual detail in the 42-
 2 page complaint filed in this matter.

3 2. The first Mars Hill Church (MHC)-related legal action of any kind that the 4 four current Plaintiffs were involved with was the letter Mr. Fahling sent on December 24,
 5 2014, to Karen Cobb, who was then the MHC attorney. That letter made it very clear that we 6 were seeking mediation. Mr. Fahling also set forth in that letter the legal claims we were 7 considering and the possible Defendants who could be named. For 14 months, we heard
 8 nothing from Defendants in response to our request for mediation. (This mediation letter was 9 publicly linked in one of Warren Throckmorton's Patheos blog posts. It was through Mr.
 10 Throckmorton -14 months later, after the complaint was filed - that Mr. Turner finally 11 contacted us).

12 3. It is upsetting to us that we did not receive the funding we had hoped for and 13 were unable to serve the Defendants in the allotted 90-day time frame. We wanted and 14 intended to proceed with the lawsuit. We still plan to do so if the funding becomes available.

15 4. There were a number of other former MHC members who wanted to join the 16 lawsuit, but Mr. Fahling did not include them, either because their claims would have been 17 based upon legal theories he did not believe were viable, or for other reasons based on his 18 legal judgment. Others who support the lawsuit and want to see it proceed also chose not to 19 participate for various reasons. Some simply didn't want to go through all that it requires to 20 be a Plaintiff. Some are still so traumatized by what happened to them at MHC that 1) they 21 didn't feel they had the strength and energy necessary; or 2) they couldn't deal with the 22 memories and the pain that would be dredged up in the process.

1 5. We had every reason to expect (through many conversations with a number of 2 different people) that others would want to help financially with this lawsuit. Some who had 3 been harmed by the actions of those named in the lawsuit wanted to help. Others who had 4 not ever attended MHC, but wanted to see the truth brought to light, also wanted to help. A
 5 number of people have given generously.

6 6. When we could see that the funds were not coming in as we had hoped, we 7 were so serious about proceeding with the lawsuit we offered to finance the lawsuit
 8 ourselves, even though Mr. Jacobsen has been unemployed for almost two years. Knowing
 9 our situation, Mr. Fahling refused to let us do so.

10 7. Our only goal in the filing and prosecuting the lawsuit against Driscoll and 11 Turner was to hold them legally accountable for their wrongful actions which caused injury
 12 to my husband and me, and to the many others they defrauded. However, if the Defendants 13 had agreed to mediation, we were willing to walk away from the over $90,000 we had been 14 fraudulently induced to donate. When Defendants refused to be held accountable through 15 mediation, we were left with no choice but to file the lawsuit, claiming as damages the 16 donations we would never have made if we had known the truth about Defendants'
 17 fraudulent practices.

18 8. There has never been a desire for retribution nor to harass Turner or Driscoll.
 19 We also have no desire for personal notoriety or publicity. One of the most difficult aspects
 20 of all this has been to put ourselves in the public eye. We have lost many friends and have 21 been the subjects of many personal attacks, including in social media and elsewhere on the 22 Internet.

1 9. Because our complaint is factual and for the most part is a summation of 2 information already released in the media before our lawsuit was filed, any harm done to Mr.
3 Turner was already accomplished by the time the lawsuit was filed.

4 10. In fact, Mr. Turner has a much larger platform for getting his message out than 5 the Plaintiffs do. He has set up his own website and has used other avenues as well to get his 6 own message and “explanations” out. It is because of the larger platform, the bigger “voice,” 7 and the deeper pockets that Mr. Turner and Mr. Driscoll have, that they have been able to 8 silence those speaking the truth about MHC for so long.
